Guidelines and Procedure for engagement of Young Professionals in Department of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Law & Justice

The following guidelines and procedure are being prescribed for engagement of Young Professionals in the Department of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Law & Justice. These guidelines will come into effect from the date of approval by the competent authority in the Department of Legal Affairs.

1. Purpose and Scope of Application

1.1 The Department of Legal Affairs is primarily mandated with rendering Advice to various Ministries and Departments of the Government of India on legal matters including interpretation of the Constitution and the laws, conveyancing and engagement of counsel to appear on behalf of the Union of India in the High Court and subordinate courts where the Union of India is a party. Department of Legal Affairs is also mandated to conduct of cases in the Supreme Court and the High Courts on behalf of the Central Government and on behalf of the Governments of States participating in the Central Agency Scheme. It is essential to have the Young Professionals in diverse spheres/fields of law who possess the requisite expertise and skill set. They should be high quality professionals, capable of lending their expertise in diverse spheres/fields of law suitable to the requirements of Department of Legal Affairs.

1.2 The General conditions of Contracts for the services of Young Professionals will be incorporated into their individual contracts.

2. Definitions: The following definitions apply for the purpose of the present instructions:

2.1 "Young Professionals" means a person with requisite qualifications and suitable experience engaged in an individual capacity to work in the Department of Legal Affairs.

2.2 "Services" covers a range of services that are of an advisory or professional nature and are provided by the Young Professionals. These services typically will be of specialized nature in tune with the tasks of the Department of Legal Affairs.

3. Contractual terms and conditions

3.1 Legal Status: The Young Professionals shall have the legal status of an independent Consultant vis-à-vis, Department of Legal Affairs and shall not be regarded for any purposes, as being either a "staff member" of Department of Legal Affairs, or an "official" of Department of Legal Affairs. Accordingly, nothing within or relating to the Contract shall establish the relationship of employer and employee, or of principal and agent, between Department of Legal Affairs and the Individual Young Professional.

3.2 Standards of Conduct:

3.2.1 In general the Young Professional shall neither seek not accept instructions from any authority external to Department of Legal Affairs in connection with the performance of his/her obligations under the Contract. The Young Professional shall not take any action in respect of performance of the Contract or otherwise related to his/her obligations under the Contract that may adversely affect the interests of Department of Legal Affairs, and the Young Professional shall perform its obligations under the Contract with the fullest regard to the interests of Department of Legal Affairs. The Young Professional warrants that he/she has not and shall not offer any direct or indirect benefit arising from or related to the performance of the Contract or the award thereof to any representative, official, employee or other agent of Department of Legal Affairs. The Young Professional shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules and regulations bearing upon the performance of his/her obligations under the Contract. In the performance of the Contract the Young Professional shall comply with the standards of Conduct. Failure to comply with the same is grounds for termination of the Young Professional for cause.

3.2.2 Prohibition of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse: In the performance of the Contract, the Young Professional shall comply with the "Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013". The Young Professional acknowledges and agrees that any breach of any of the provisions hereof shall constitute a breach of an essential term of the Contract, and, in addition to any other legal rights or remedies available to any person, shall give rise to grounds for termination of the Contract. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the right of Department of Legal Affairs to refer any alleged breach of the foregoing standards of conduct to the relevant national authorities for appropriate legal action.

3.3 Title Rights, Copyrights, Patents and Other Proprietary Rights:

3.3.1 Title to any equipment and supplies that may be furnished by Department of Legal Affairs to the Young Professional for the performance of any obligations under the Contract shall rest with Department of Legal Affairs and any such equipment shall be returned to Department of Legal Affairs at the conclusion of the Contract or when no longer needed by the Young Professional. Such equipment, when returned to Department of Legal Affairs, shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Young Professional, subject to normal wear and tear, and the Young Professional shall be liable to compensate Department of Legal Affairs for any damage or degradation of the equipment that is beyond normal wear and tear.

3.3.2 Department of Legal Affairs shall be entitled to all intellectual property and other proprietary rights, including, but not limited to, patents, copyrights and trademarks, with regard to products, processes, inventions, ideas, know-how or documents and other materials which the Young Professional has developed for Department of Legal Affairs under the Contract and which bear a direct relation to or are produced or prepared or collected in consequence of, or during the course of, the performance of the Contract, and the Young Professional acknowledges and agrees that such products, documents and other materials constitute works made for hire for Department of Legal Affairs. Subject to the foregoing provisions, all plans, reports, estimates, recommendations, documents and all other data compiled by or received by the Young Professional under the Contract shall be the property of Department of Legal Affairs, shall be made available for use or inspection by Department of Legal Affairs at reasonable times and in reasonable places, shall be treated as confidential and shall be delivered only to Department of Legal Affairs authorized officials on completion of work under the Contract.

3.4 Confidential Nature of Documents and Information: The Young Professional would be subject to the provisions of the Indian Official Secrets Act, 1923. The Young Professional shall not, except with the previous sanction of Department of Legal Affairs or in the bona fide discharge of his or her duties, publish a book or a compilation of articles or participate in radio broadcast or contribute an article or write a letter in any newspapers or periodical either in his own name or anonymously or pseudonymously in the name of any other person, if such book, article, broadcast or letter relates to subject matter assigned to him by Department of Legal Affairs.

3.5 Use Of Name, Emblem or Official Seal of the Department of Legal Affairs: The Young Professional shall not advertise or otherwise make public for purposes of commercial advantage that he/she has a contractual relationship with Department of Legal Affairs, nor shall the Young Professional, in any manner whatsoever, use the name, emblem or official seal of Department of Legal Affairs, or any abbreviation of the name of Department of Legal Affairs, in connection with his/her business or otherwise without the written permission of Department of Legal Affairs

3.6 Insurance: The Young Professional shall be solely responsible for taking out and for maintaining adequate insurance required to meet any of his/her obligations under the Contract, as well as for arranging, at the Young Professional's sole expense, such life, health and other forms of insurance as the Young Professional may consider to be appropriate to cover the period during which the Young Professional provides services under the Contract.

3.7 Travel, Medical Clearance and Service Incurred Death, Injury or Illness:

3.7.1 Department of Legal Affairs may require the Young Professional to submit a Statement of Good Health from a recognized physician prior to commencement of work in any offices or premises of the Department of Legal Affairs.

3.7.2 In the event of the death, injury or illness of the Individual consultant which is attributable to the performance of services on behalf of Department of Legal Affairs under the terms of the Contract while the Young Professional is traveling at Department of Legal Affairs expense or is performing any services under the Contract in any offices or premises of Department of Legal Affairs or Government of India, the Young Professional or the Young Professional's dependents, as appropriate, shall not be entitled to any compensation

3.8 Force Majeure and other Conditions:

3.8.1 Force majeure as used herein means any unforeseeable and irresistible act of nature, any act of war (whether declared or not), invasion, revolution, insurrection, or any other acts of a similar nature or force, provided that such acts arise from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Young Professional.

3.8.2 The Young Professional acknowledges and agrees that, with respect to any obligations under the Contract that the Young Professional must perform in or for any areas in which Department of Legal Affairs is engaged in, preparing to engage in, or disengaging from any peacekeeping, humanitarian or similar operations, any delay or failure to perform such obligations arising from or relating to harsh conditions within such areas or to any incidents of civil unrest occurring in such areas shall not, in and of itself, constitute force majeure under the Contract.

3.9 Termination: The Department of Legal Affairs can terminate the contract at any time without prior notice and without providing any reason for it. However, in the normal course it will provide one month's notice to the Young Professional. The Young Professional can also seek for termination of the contract upon giving one month's notice to the Department of Legal Affairs.

3.10. Audits and Investigations: Each invoice paid by Department of Legal Affairs shall be subject to a post-payment audit by auditors, whether internal or external, of Department of Legal Affairs or by other authorized and qualified agents of Department of Legal Affairs at any time during the term of the Contract and for a period of two (2) years following the expiration or prior termination of the Contract. Department of Legal Affairs shall be entitled to a refund from the Young Professional for any amounts shown by such audits to have been paid by Department of Legal Affairs other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Contract. The Young Professional acknowledges and agrees that, from time to time, Department of Legal Affairs may conduct investigations relating to any aspect of the Contract or the award thereof, the obligations performed under the Contract, and the operations of the Young Professional generally relating to performance of the Contract. The right of Department of Legal Affairs to conduct an investigation and the Young Professional's obligation to comply with such an investigation shall not lapse upon expiration or prior termination of the Contract. The Young Professional shall provide his/her full and timely cooperation with any such inspections, post-payment audits or investigations. Such co-operation shall include, but shall not be limited to, the Young Professional's obligation to make available his/her personnel and any relevant documentation for such purposes at reasonable times and on reasonable conditions and to grant to Department of Legal Affairs access to the Young Professional's premises at reasonable times and on reasonable conditions in connection with such access to the Young Professional's personnel and relevant documentation.

3.11 Settlement of Disputes: Department of Legal Affairs and the Young Professional shall use their best efforts to amicably settle any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of the Contract or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof.

3.12 Arbitration: Any dispute, controversy or claim between the parties arising out of the Contract, or the breach, termination, or invalidity thereof, unless settled amicably, as provided above, shall be referred by either of the parties to the Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs for arbitration. The Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs may appoint an arbitrator for the settlement of the controversy.

3.13. Conflict of Interest: The Young Professional shall be expected to follow all the rules and regulations of the Government of India which are in force. He/she will be expected to display utmost honesty, secrecy of office and sincerity while discharging his/her duties. In case the services of the Young Professional are not found satisfactory or found in conflict with the interests of the Department of Legal Affairs/Government of India, his/her services will be liable for discontinuation without assigning any reason.

4. Terms of reference

4.1 The tasks to be performed by the Young Professionals shall be decided, as per requirements as deemed necessary, by Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs and/or the Group Head of the Department of Legal Affairs to whose group the Young Professional is attached.
